This expedition began in the morning almost an hour later than I (26)_____ (plan), despite the fact that I (27)_____ (complete) my packing well before eight o'clock. I suppose I was very conscious of the fact that I would miss it and I thought: "Once I (28)_____ (depart), Darlington Hall (29)_____ (stand) empty for probably the first time since the day it (30)_____ (build)." It is hard to explain my feelings once I finally (31)_____ (set off). For the first twenty minutes or so of motoring, I cannot say I (32)_____ (seize) by any excitement or anticipation at all. This was due, no doubt, to the fact that though I (33)_____ (motor) further and further from the house, I (34)_____ (continue) to find myself in surroundings with which I had at least a passing acquaintance. Now I had always supposed I (35)_____ (travel) very little. If only I (36)_____ (restrict) by my responsibilities in the house, I (37)_____ (become) much more acquainted with those neighbouring districts.

“The publicity an artist gets when they show a new series (60) _____ works (61) _____ the media is a double-edged sword,” Forrest points out. “You get attention, but you also come in (62) _____ a lot of criticism (63) _____ the media. First, they ask you to talk about your work and then they create their own interpretations, regardless (64) _____ what you tell them your work actually says or means.”

Forrest’s working style is to build up each sculpture piece (65) _____ piece. He says that this process is not widely understood. “There’s no real vocabulary (66) _____ discussing the craft of building the types of sculptures I create. Reviews of artwork which appear in magazines or newspapers tend to be based (67) _____ whether the reviewer likes the particular artist or not, rather than discussing whether the artist is skilful, or how intelligent his work is.” There is still something mysterious (68) _____ the creation of an amazing sculpture. “It’s very personal, very emotional. It’s like building a new friendship,” Forrest says. “Once a sculpture is finished, the process you went (69) _____ to create it remains (70) _____ you, like an old friend.”

VIII. Read the article in which five people are talking about their different careers. For questions 71 – 80, choose from the people A – E. The people may be chosen more than once. Mark your answer on your answer sheet.

A. Sarah

All I wanted at seventeen was to keep from going to university like all my friends, so I took a management course and then went to work as an office manager in a small real estate company. In the beginning I was a little nervous about making decisions, but my boss is a close friend and luckily had faith in me and my abilities. My friends, who are still at university, don't appreciate the fact that I have a lot of responsibility right now. They're always calling me to go out – to parties or for pizza, but I usually turn down their invitations because I have to get up early.

B. Lisa

My mum was a teacher, and when I was small, it was a little awkward having her teach in the same school I attended. But after I met some of her former students, I realised what a difference she had made in people's lives. When I started out as a teacher I was quite shy, but one day I daringly stepped out of my place and tried out some innovative teaching techniques. The head teacher got to hear about it, and was very impressed. I really enjoy teaching at secondary level, because I find that teenagers are very engaging.

C. Tom

I am very interested in the field of marine biology and I devoted my younger years to researching and writing a book on the subject. I then went on to get my diving certificate. I started working in England as an instructor, but when I realised there was no real future for me there, I moved to the Caribbean. I started with a diving company in the British Virgin Islands, which was great, but I noticed that the equipment was somewhat outdated. When I pointed it out to my boss, he was so surprised that he immediately ordered new gear for all the instructors. I soon fell in love with the island lifestyle. I enjoy my job, as well as my time off, and now life is perfect.

D. Barbara

After art school I really wanted to become a ‘serious’ artist, but I knew that I couldn’t be sure of supporting myself financially if I did. Then Mum suggested I try book illustration. I started at a small publishing company that produces children’s books. I love working there, but in the beginning I was hopelessly disorganised – I kept ordering the wrong types and amounts of supplies. I eventually got the hang of it, though. Recently I branched out into drawing a weekly cartoon for the local newspaper in my spare time, and I hope it will lead to more work of the same kind.

E. Kenneth

I never imagined I would end up doing this kind of work, and I actually fell into it by accident. I wanted to buy my mother a brooch for her birthday, but I couldn’t find one I liked, so I decided to design my own. Some of her friends saw it and liked it so much that I started to get requests on a regular basis for new designs. My mother likes to boast that her son is a designer, but I wonder what her friends would think if they knew that I haven’t had any formal training. I’m now planning to take on some people to help me so I can expand into mail-order jewellery.
