

1 Mahatma Gandhi said: “It is health that is the real wealth, and not pieces of gold and silver.” How do you understand this?

2 Pablo Picasso said: “Every child is an artist; the problem is staying an artist when you grow up” How do you understand this?

3 O. Henry once said: “No friendship is an accident.” What exactly did he mean?

4 Mahatma Gandhi said: “Learn as if you will live forever, live like you will die tomorrow.” How do you understand this?

5 Michael Imperioli said: “My family is my life and everything else comes second”. What is your attitude to this?

6 Ludwig Wittgenstein said: “The limits of my language mean the limits of my world.” How do you understand this?

7 Tim Notke once commented: “Hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard.” Do you agree with it?

8 Saint Augustine said: “The world is a book and those who do not travel read only one page.” How do you understand this?

9 Stephen King once said: “Books are a uniquely portable magic.” Could you elaborate on this thought?

10 Joshua Becker said: “The most environmentally friendly product is the one you didn't buy.” What did he mean?

11 Louise Hay said: “There's no such thing as good or bad weather. There is just your attitude.” Can you agree with this?

12 Wendy Wunder said: “The magic thing about home is that it feels good to leave, and it feels even better to come back.” Do you feel the same?

13 Ray Bradbury once said: “Half the fun of the travel is the esthetic of lostness.” How do you understand this?

14 Samuel Johnson said: “When a man is tired of London, he is tired of life.” Do you think it is an exaggeration?

15 Ernie Banks said: “The only way to prove that you’re good at sport is to lose.” How do you understand this?

16 Rachael Ray: “Having an animal in your life makes you a better human.” Do you believe it’s true?

17 Derek Bok said: “If you think education is expensive, try ignorance.” How do you understand this?

18 Judy Garland “Be a first-rate version of yourself, not a second-rate version of someone else.” How do you understand this?

19 Albert Einstein said: “I have no special talents. I am only passionately curious.” Do you think he was honest?

20 Dorothy Draper said: “The finest thing about a hobby is that you can’t do any pretending about it.” How do you understand this?

21 Ana White said: “The Internet has made the world a small town again.” How do you understand this?

22 Chili Davis once said: “Growing old is mandatory; growing up is optional.” How do you understand this?

23 Eleanor Roosevelt said: “The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.” What did she mean?

24 Leo Christopher said: “There’s only one thing more precious than our time, and that’s who we spend it on.” Do you have the same opinion?

25 Albert Schweitzer said: “Happiness is nothing more than good health and a bad memory.” How do you understand this?